

Designing the Board

Since the user vote was heavily in favour of the guitar shape on the board I chose that, but then I realised that since guitars varied so widely I would have to find out more information.

The most obvious and most important variant of guitars has to be shape.

The next is colour, which needs to be interesting and stylish, but suitable for the background to a board game.

11HJ Graphic Products